

Fall Song

(music + lyrics by Olivia Trummer)

My dear, this is an autumn song for the memories start to fall like autumn colored leaves when their time has come
Oh, with what ease they fall

My dear, not so much time has passed since our lips have kissed or shared the latest news but summer illusions cool and fade away
Oh, with what ease the leaves fall down

Sometimes when I'm alone I push it to the back of my mind How sunny it becomes whenever autumn skies do disguise as if spring just arrived

But when the clouds turn grey and autumn paves the way For a storm to cast a pall I know it's time to fall again

My dear, this is an autumn song
For the memories start to fall like autumn colored leaves
When their time has come
Oh with what ease they fall
Oh with what ease they fall
