

Your love is free

(music + lyrics by Olivia Trummer)

Never ever be afraid to lose your love in one of the gloomy storms yet to pass
For your love is free

Never ever try to keep your love with pleading hands gathering merely raindrops sharp as glass
For your love is free

Never be afraid that someone might break your heart for it is softer than one caress if filled with love
