

Snow colored streets

(music + lyrics by Olivia Trummer)

Snow colored streets
Generously sharing their wise open whiteness Pure and sublime

Snow colored streets
Soon to be covered with ingenious footprints Unfolding time

Singing my song while deflowering the silence around me Calling for snow covered seeds

Snow colored paper to soak in the ink of my breath of my hope of my tears

I will carve my dreams into snow colored streets wearing the dress of eternal beginning

Snow-covered streets soon to be colored in Spring

(from the album „Fly Now“)
